Joe Sanfelippo is the Superintendent of the Fall Creek School District in Fall Creek, WI. The Fall Creek School district was named an Innovative District in 2016 and 2017 by the International Center for Leadership in Education. Joe has taught Kindergarten, 2nd grade and 5th grade. He was also a school counselor and high school coach prior to taking an elementary principal position in 2005. He has served as a principal in suburban and rural Wisconsin. Joe focuses on three key factors of being a leader:

Be Intentional – Every interaction matters because every interaction could be the one they talk about forever.

Open Doors – When people outside your walls know what you are doing it gives value to those inside.

Build People – People who feel that their work has value will go well beyond anything you asked them to do.
